Getting to Edinburgh from the Airport

Edinburgh airport is well serviced by public transport. To get from the airport to the centre of Edinburgh takes about 25 minutes by taxi or bus (depending on traffic). We do not recommend that you hire a car as there is little parking in the city centre and there is no parking at Aspects' offices.

By bus

Take the Airlink 100 airport bus to the terminus at Waverley Bridge. Busses are every ten minutes from early morning to after midnight. The journey takes about 25 minutes. For more information on prices, timetable etc please visit: www.flybybus.com

Arriving in Edinburgh by train

The main station in Edinburgh is called Waverley, located at Waverley Bridge and is a short walk from Aspects' offices.

Getting to Aspects' Offices from Waverley Bridge:

1. Cross Waverley Bridge and immediately turn right down Princes Street.
2. Pass the Princes Street Mall, Waverley Steps and Balmoral Hotel.
3. Cross Princes Street and turn right.
4. Continue up Leith Street, passing the St James' shopping centre and Thistle Hotel.
5. Continue past John Lewis department store, bear left and cross Little King Street.
6. Continue straight ahead on the pedestrian area, past St Mary's Cathedral.
7. At the Conan Doyle pub, cross York Place diagonally to the top of Broughton Street.
8. Walk down Broughton Street and turn right under the archway into Broughton Street Lane.
9. Playfair House is on the left opposite the Outhouse.
