CTS-Caliber provides Consultancy Services & Collis Test Tool to Asia Commercial Bank

Singapore; Vietnam; 16th April 2010: Collis is pleased to announce that CTS-Caliber (Collis' value added reseller) is providing Consultancy Services & Collis Test Tool to Asia Commercial Bank

Asia Commercial Bank, one of Vietnam's leading financial institutions, provides a full range of banking and related services including loans, insurance, and foreign exchange for corporate and consumer clients. CTS-Caliber, Collis' Value Added Reseller in Vietnam, has been providing smartcard issuance solutions and Collis Test Tool to Asia Commercial Bank to enable them to achieve Visa and MasterCard certification. CTS-Caliber is a leading company in Vietnam providing information technology and smart issuance solutions to customers in the banking industry. Collis is a global market leader in secure transaction technology offering industry accredited products and solutions for smart card technology, security/risk transactions and systems.

Mr. Bui Tan Tai, Vice President, Asia Commercial Bank, Vietnam, comments: "With the EMV Personalization Validation Tool (EMV PVT) via CTS-Caliber from Collis, we can use the Collis EMV PVT for ensuring the quality of our personalised EMV cards. We are happy to test our new EMV cards issuance with the user-friendly Collis EMV PVT before our EMV cards are issued to reduce the risk of malfunctioning cards. In this way, we can speed up the development of the Visa and MasterCard branded smartcards personalisation and shorten time-to-market in Vietnam."

Mr. Calvin H J Yau, CEO, CTS-Caliber Solutions, comments: "As a leading provider of end-to-end smart card issuance solutions for financial institutions in Malaysia and Vietnam, CTS-Caliber has recognized the need to have a comprehensive testing tool in place for customers to ensure performance and to meet required specifications for personalisation of EMV cards before go-live issue and self-certification. The Collis EMV PVT guarantees that our customers have reliable means for ongoing quality assurance of their EMV cards and that they can validate the personalised card data and cryptography against EMVCo, Visa and MasterCard specifications."

Nathalie Ha, Sales and Marketing Director Asia Pacific, Collis, adds: "Collis is very pleased to deliver the Collis EMV Personalisation Validation Tool (PVT) via CTS-Caliber Solutions to Asia Commercial Bank in Vietnam. The Collis EMV PVT is an award winning test tool used for testing and quality assurance by customers worldwide. Consultancy Services via our partner CTS-Caliber, who are experts in the banking industry, coupled with high quality Collis Test Tools reduces delivery timelines & ensures correctly personalised smart cards.
